DEAR SIR,—I have been suffering from tightness in the chest, and my blood had become poor; but after taking GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS, I regained healthy and pure blood and am completely relieved from the oppression
of the chest which I suffered from.

Yours, &c.,

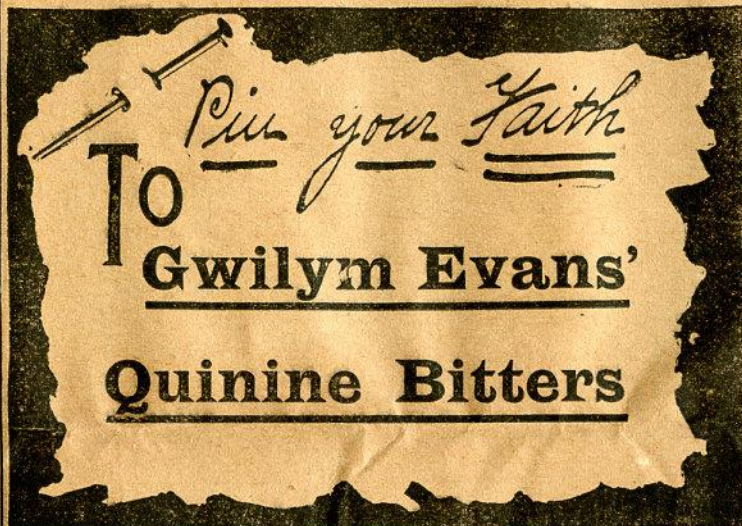

JAMES HARRIS.

DEAR SIR,—I have suffered greatly
during the last twelve months from Nervousness and Weakness, and though several doctors have prescribed for me, I received but little benefit until I was recommended to try GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS. I have already found great relief, and intend to persevere in its use, as I believe it will soon restore me to my usual health.—Yours gratefully,

JNO. REECE.

 GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered from dyspepsia and weakness for ten weeks;
 the doctors said I might die at any time,
 so hearing of GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS I tried it, and one bottle did me
 more good than all the doctors' medicines I had taken. I am now working, and as well as ever I was in all my life, and I shall always recommend GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS to all my neighbours
 and acquaintances.—Yours truly,
 JOHN LITTLER.

BELLE VUE, WORDSLEY,

 DEAR SIR,—I have great pleasure in informing you of the benefit I have derived from the use of GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS. I have suffered for years from Indigestion, and have tried several doctors and different remedies,
 but I found more benefit from two bottles
 of GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS
 than I have from anything else. I shall always recommend it, and will always keep a bottle of it in the house.—Yours
 truly,
 JOHN PAGE.

"NOT BY EDGAR ALLAN POE."

Once upon a midnight dreary, ill in bed
 quite weak and weary,
 With sleeplessness, low spirits, and
 indigestion sore:
 While I strove in vain at napping,
 suddenly there came a tapping,
 As of someone gently rapping—rapping
 at my chamber door?
 "It's Doctor Draughts," I muttered,
 "tapping at my chamber door."
 'Twas the Doctor, nothing more.

Oh! distinctly I remember: it was in the bleak December,
 And in every single member of my body
 pains I bore;
 Eagerly I wished the morrow—vainly
 had I sought to borrow
 From drugs surcease of sorrow—sorrow
 for my pains galore;
 And I asked if I should ever be as
 healthy as before:
 Quoth the Doctor—"Nevermore!"

"Your chest is bad that's certain; your
 neuralgia's always hurting,
 And your liver is so sluggish that life's
 to you a bore;

And your heart's so bad at beating that
 in vain you're sleep entreating,
 While from weakness even now you
 perspire at every pore."
 "But, Doctor, when shall I be fit to pass
 the threshold of my door?"
 Quoth the Doctor—"Nevermore!"

Presently my soul grew stronger; hesitating then no longer:
 "Nurse, send for GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS, I implore!"
 And the fact is, after tapping one bottle
 I was napping
 In the sweet refreshing napping I had known in days of yore;
 And with neuralgia, palpitation, indigestion and bronchitis,
 I was troubled—Nevermore.

Then, to all within my hearing, who are now these ailments fearing,
 I will give the good advice I received myself before:
 See that EVANS' stamp's unbroken, and
 each bottle bears the token
 Of "GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS,"
 so well known and praised of yore.
 Merely this, and nothing more.

DEAR SIR,—Having been a sufferer for years from Indigestion and Pains in the Head, and all other medicines having failed to effect a cure, I was persuaded to try GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS,
 and I am happy to say, with good results,
 for I am now quite a different man.

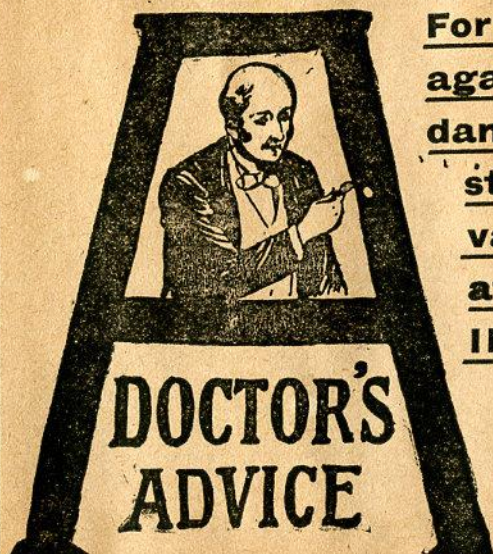

I remain, yours gratefully,
 JOHN WALDRON.

DEAR SIR,—I have suffered many years from Indigestion, but after trying
 two bottles of GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS I was quite free from it. I have great pleasure in recommending it to anyone suffering from the same complaint, and shall always recommend it to any of my friends who may be suffering.

Yours truly,

DEAR SIR,—I have examined GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS, and find them to be quite free from all minerals, and am also pleased to add that they have been very efficacious in numerous instances that have come under my immediate notice for general debility, atonic indigestion, &c. I have frequently recommended them with marked success.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been very ill with Influenza, followed by Congestion of the Lungs. Three weeks ago my condition was critical, and when the danger passed I was very low and weak. About a fortnight ago, the doctor said I should take a good tonic, I suggested GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS. "The very thing," he said, "take it three times a day." Since then I have taken it regularly, and feel wonderfully benefited. It has restored strength to my limbs, and given tone to my whole system.

Yours sincerely—B. P. CHICK.

DEAR SIR,—I had suffered for years from Indigestion, Palpitation, and General Weakness, but found no permanent relief until I gave GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS a fair trial by taking a few bottles, and I can truly say they have done more good than anything I have taken. The palpitation of the heart from which I suffered so much has entirely disappeared, and I am quite another person. Life is now to me a pleasure, as I have only to take a few doses of GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS occasionally to have the desired effect. I feel thankful for your great discovery, and I shall be glad to recommend it to anyone who may desire information.

Yours respectfully, E. COOKE.

DEAR SIR,—A few weeks ago I caught a severe cold, which prostrated me for several days. By chance I saw one of your circulars, and resolved to try GWILYM EVANS' QUININE BITTERS, which I did, with the most satisfactory results. I have no doubt that the one bottle which I took has saved me a heavy doctor's bill, and I shall always praise it.

Yours faithfully, JAMES PRINCE.
